

Ho-Ho-Kus Junior Police Academy Instructors

Sergeant Mosca joined the Ho-Ho-Kus Police Department in 2004. She graduated from Seton Hall University with a Master's Degree in Human Resources, and Ramapo College with a Bachelor's Degree in Social Science. She also earned a Public Sector Leadership Certificate from Cornell University. Sergeant Mosca is a Resiliency Officer, Domestic Violence Liaison Officer, Municipal Alliance Coordinator, a certified EMT, a TAC Officer and Field Training Officer and has completed the Bergen County Crisis Intervention Team training. She also runs the department website and social media pages. She has been an instructor with the Junior Police Academy since it was created in 2006.

Sergeant Morrissey joined the Ho-Ho-Kus Police Department in 2013. He graduated from East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania with a dual major in Criminal Justice and Sociology. He is in charge of the Traffic Division and is a Field Training Officer. Sergeant Morrissey is also a member of Police Pipes and Drums of Bergen County and has been an instructor with the Junior Police Academy since 2013.

Officer Sweetman joined the Ho-Ho-Kus Police Department in 2012. He also graduated from East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania with a dual major in Criminal Justice and Sociology. He is in charge of the L.E.A.D program and is the head instructor. He has been an instructor with the Junior Police Academy since 2013.

Officer Dench joined the Ho-Ho-Kus Police Department in 2008. He attended Ramapo College and studied Criminal Justice while playing basketball. Officer Dench is the supervising firearms instructor, and an ASP/OC instructor. Officer Dench has also been a member of the Ho-Ho-Kus Fire Department for 19 years and he is the only member of the Ho-Ho-Kus Police Department born and raised in Ho-Ho-Kus.